Join The Folks At Boyds For A Silver Anniversary Event!

25 Years Of Making Friends
Saturday, October 16, 2004, At Participating Boyds Dealers

The Folks at Boyds are kickin' up our heels, celebrating, reminiscing about the good old days (a quarter century of makin' folks smile!), and looking forward to decades of fun to come. It's our 25th anniversary, time to celebrate with a history-making special event!

F.o.B.s are cordially invited to our Silver Anniversary Event on October 16, 2004, at participating Boyds Dealers across the country. A great time to bring a friend to your favorite Boyds shop and introduce him or her to the world of Boyds... or make new friends to last a lifetime!

During our special event, folks will have the opportunity to purchase two precious pieces that celebrate the best of Boyds—old and new! For the first time in Boyds history, we're offering both plush and resin: Elder With Newton, a careworn gold chenille teddy bear, and Elder & Newton... Bestest Friends, an intricately sculpted Bearstone that rests atop a "silver" coin base. Each will be offered—with a Boyds purchase—at a special anniversary price. Make a $20 Boyds Stuff purchase, and buy one special event piece (your choice!) for $10. Spend $40 on Boyds Stuff, and you can buy both!

Another great reason to attend? Boyds Dealers will offer a special 30-inch version of our Silver Anniversary Sterling bear. Sorry, not for sale...this beauty will be raffled off or given away at the dealer's discretion. Good luck!

To view our special event pieces in living color and find a participating dealer near you, log onto boydsstuff.com! ☛

"A word is a bud attempting to become a twig. How can one not dream while writing?"

~Gaston Bachelard

On April 7, 2004, the Folks at Boyd's invited Starlight child Ashlee Bahr and her family to Boyd's Bear Country™ for a day of bear hugs and fun. Ashlee, as you may recall, inspired our Spring 2004 Starlight bear, Ashlee R. Angel.

Ashlee arrived at Boyd's Bear Country—with parents Deb and Terry, sisters Abigail and Hannah, and grandparents Bob and JoElla Vunder—smiling from ear to ear. She held on tight to her precious namesake Boyd's Bear and proudly displayed her newly manicured nails (painted a pale lavender to match her furry friend!).

Although Ashlee is only 12 years old, she seems wise beyond her years and an inspiration to each and every person she meets. Ashlee battled seizures for eight long years before a special operation saved her life. In August 2000, Ashlee was admitted to UCLA and underwent a hemispherectomy, a procedure in which the hemispheres of her brain were disconnected and a portion of her right brain removed. The operation was a success—Ashlee has been seizure free since 2000. Although she suffers from dizziness and, at times, requires wheelchair assistance ("Ashlee works ten times harder than we do to walk," explains mom Deb), Ashlee seems undaunted—giggling, and smiling, and full of life—and unaware of how brave and determined she truly is. "We got our little girl back with that surgery," her mom adds.

Starlight became a part of the Bahr family's life after Ashlee's surgery. The non-profit organization granted Ashlee's wish to visit Walt Disney World, and has since sent the family to movie premieres and presented Ashlee and her sisters with special care packages.

"Starlight has helped me," says Ashlee. "They've taken care of my family. I'm glad that they've supported my family because my parents love to be with me (during treatment). They've been so sweet and generous."

Ashlee's favorite Starlight representative, Karineh Moradien, who has become very close to the family, informed the Bahrs that Boyd's planned to create a special Starlight bear in Ashlee's honor. "I was very excited and proud," Ashlee says, recalling the moment when Karineh called with the good news. What does Ashlee like best about Ashlee R. Angel? "The color—purple," she says. "That's my grandma's favorite color. And it's so soft!" Like most 12 year olds, Ashlee has her heroes, her hobbies, and her aspirations for the future. When asked about role models, Ashlee mentions Christian singer Rachel Lampa (music therapy helped Ashlee through the most trying times of her illness) and her own Dad. "He spends a lot of time with me and understands how I feel," she explains. "He knows that I love him and he stays right by my side."

Ashlee, who now serves as a role model and mentor for other children preparing for hemispherectomies at UCLA, hopes to be a surgeon when she grows up. She adds thoughtfully. "I think I can help people going through what I've been through—not be afraid, to know that it's going to be okay."

All Aboard...Boyd's F.o.B. Cruise!

Updated Info Just For Loyal Boyd's Fans

Pack your bags and get your sea legs ready...Boyd's is about to embark on a very special cruise... to celebrate our Silver Anniversary and 25 years of making friends!

This F.o.B. cruise sets sail on January 22, 2005, aboard Carnival Cruise Lines' "Inspiration" Fun Ship!

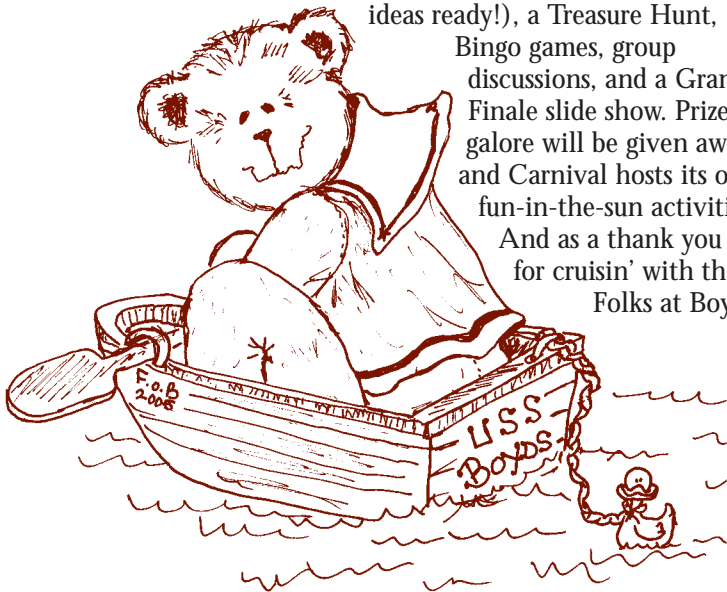

So while folks in the states are shoveling three feet of snow, you'll be kickin' back in a lounge chair, soakin' in the sun rays, and hearing nothing but the sound of waves lapping against the side of our big ol' F.o.B. ~~boat~~ (oops!) ship.

Destination? You didn't think we were just gonna float around the Gulf of Mexico did you? No way! Our five-day cruise is bound for Cozumel—a diver's dream—and the Grand Cayman Islands—three coral islands set in the northwest Caribbean Sea!

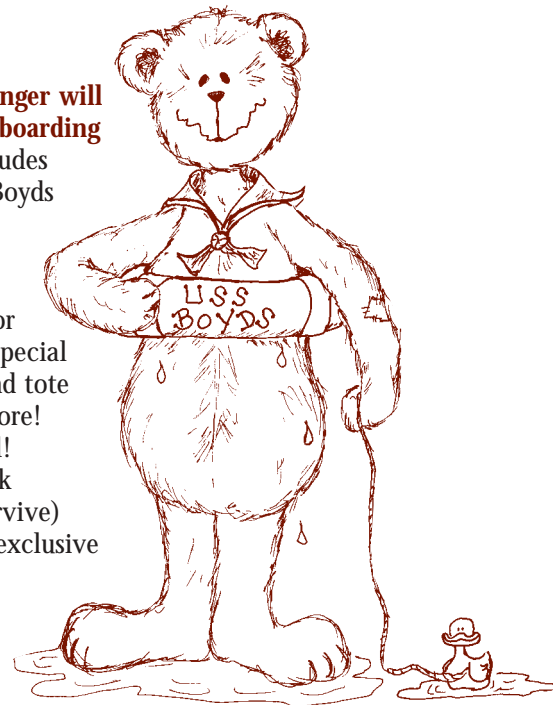

We've scheduled tons of special events to keep folks busy while we cruise to our Caribbean destinations. Enjoy your vacation with Sebastian, VP of Stuff Liz Smith, and the Boyd's Team of Product Managers, as well as Teddy Bear Artist Steve Schutt. We're planning a Talent Show contest (great costumes a must, so get your ideas ready!), a Treasure Hunt, Bingo games, group discussions, and a Grand Finale slide show. Prizes galore will be given away, and Carnival hosts its own fun-in-the-sun activities!

And as a thank you for cruisin' with the Folks at Boyd's, each F.o.B. passenger will receive a special boarding package that includes cruise-exclusive Boyd's nautical-themed plush and resin, a Boyd's Travel Handbook 101 For Cruise Survival, special cruisin' T-shirt and tote bag, and much more! And that's not all! After you get back (assuming you survive) you'll receive an exclusive 18-inch bear commemorating your travels. That's a retail value of $300 (are we nuts?!).

Okay, ready and rarin' to sign on the dotted line and book your passage aboard our F.o.B. ship? Our exclusive travel agency, Fox Valley Travel, will accept reservations, beginning on June 21 at the F.o.B. Jamboree at Boyd's Bear Country, or via phone at 800-288-5066.

(Reservations must be booked through Fox Valley Travel to participate in exclusive F.o.B. cruise festivities.) You must be a 2004 F.o.B. member to make a reservation, and you can bring one guest. Cabin prices range from $725 to $895 per person based on double occupancy, and suites are available upon request. Don't worry...we offer a convenient three-part payment plan for folks on a budget. Rates include government fees and *port taxes. Rates do not include hotels, transportation, gratuities, or insurance. And for a lucky 25 F.o.B.s (and one guest per F.o.B.) Simply Charming!

Boys Launches New Line of Sterling-Silver Jewelry!

Folks have been asking us for years to do a line of jewelry. And we've tried, and tried, and tried again. But we just never seemed to hit the mark, to capture that truly Boyds look...until now.

The Folks at Boys are proud to give F.o.B.s the first sneak peek at our brand new line of Boyds Bearwear™ sterling-silver jewelry. The line will be officially launched at the F.o.B. Jamboree in June and offered to our very best Boyds Dealers across the country.

So what's the lineup? We've created 18 intricately sculpted and cast bear charms. Some, like Humboldt, are taken directly from Bearstone sculptures, while others are inspired by popular Bearstone sentiments. Earring enthusiasts will love the three styles of earrings we've created—two paw-print designs and a lovely pair of angel bear earrings! And for all the dog lovers out there, we've created charms based on the 18 most popular dog breeds, plus 2 dog-related icons—a fire hydrant engraved with "Love My Dog" and a bone (get it engraved with your dog's name!). But that's not all... to display all your lovely charms, we've crafted a sterling-silver bracelet, with an elegant toggle closure and a miniature paw-print disk!

Our sterling-silver jewelry is top quality, but won't break the bank! Suggested retail prices include $20 (charms and earrings) and $30 (bracelet). Each charm will be presented in its own velveteen drawstring

Add your favorite Boyds charms to this sterling-silver bracelet, which features an elegant toggle closure and a miniature paw-print disk!

Celeste

pouch—what a lovely way to present a piece of Boyds Bearwear™ to a friend or family member! For an up close and personal peek or for more details, ask your local Boyds Dealer! 🐾

Meet This Issue's Boyds Fanatics!

In a Special Section, the Folks at Boyds highlight those F.o.B.s who've gone a bit over the edge about Boyds (The Head Bean is so proud!).

Sandy Huppert decks her tree with Boyds bears each Christmas!

Sandy Huppert Hudson, WI

Being an avid Boyds Bear Collector, I now decorate our Christmas tree with Boyds bears. I started this about five years ago and each year I have more bears to add. It is always fun to unpack my Christmas bears and get reacquainted.

Our Christmas tree has over 50 bears on it with larger holiday bears looking on from the window ledge. Along with all my plush bears, I have several resin pieces and enjoy displaying these also. My resin collection includes two nativity sets and a Boyds Christmas tree. Enclosed are some pictures I would like to share with you.

My largest bear is 40-inch Hobson Q. Hugsmeister. Last summer, I went to visit my mother who lives in an assisted living facility four hours away. I decided to take Hobson with me so my mother could meet him. He rode in the front seat and was enjoying looking out the window until I had to suddenly hit my brakes. He landed on the floor, so for the remainder of the trip, he had his seat belt on and did just fine. I might add that he was a big hit with both residents and staff and enjoyed his stay. There are Boyds bears throughout our home and each season and holiday, I enjoy displaying bears that tie in with the season or holiday. Some of my favorites are sitting out all the time with their beady little eyes constantly watching me. Each Boyds bear has its own personality and I love each and every one. One day someone asked me how many little ones I had at home. You should have seen the expression when I said 400!

Kristi Winemiller Versailles, OH

In trying to keep the Boyds collecting a family affair, when I became pregnant with my first child, my mother started getting all the Baby Boyds she could find. My daughter, Josie Kristine (wouldn't that make a nice name for a bear), is now four months old and her collection of Boyds Bears is ever growing. The...picture that I am sending is of Josie at Christmas with two Christmas Boyds Bears.

Our home, my office, and now my daughter's bedroom are all filled with Boyds Bears. My mother and I started collecting a few years ago. My aunt and uncle collect them also. All of us were able to visit Boyds Bear Country™ together and had a wonderful time. We enjoy seeking out new bears and arranging them differently in our homes. I hope Josie grows up to love them just as much as her mother and grandmother do. Thanks for making such lovely bears.

Kristi Winemiller hopes her daughter Josie Kristine will follow in her collecting footsteps.

Jamie Forshee Clarion, PA

My first Boyds piece was given to me for my birthday from my college roommate and best friend Maryann in 1997 (she is also a Boyds Collector). Since then my collection has grown to include 87 resin pieces from Boyds Town® and Boydsenbear Acres™ Bearly-Built Villages™ (sad that you quit making) along with over 100 other resin pieces ranging from candle toppers and ornaments to Bearwear™ pins. My collection also includes 46 plush pieces, 1 sign, 1 throw, 2 pillows, 2 hats, 2 tapestries, along with many items from Boyds Bear Country™, and all 11 of the Boyds cross-stitch patterns. For the past two years my boyfriend Bryan has given me the F.o.B. club kit for my birthday. This past year my birthday happened to fall on our college spring break. So as a surprise, Bryan and his friend Lance took me to Boyds Bear Country for the first time to celebrate my twenty-fifth birthday. Yes! I am proud to admit that instead of spending my spring break in Cancun... I went to Boyds Bear Country in Gettysburg, Pennsylvania.

Recently I just finished my first Boyds Bear cross-stitch (another pastime when I am not out shopping for Boyds). I finished Eddie... Proud to be a Bearmerican a few days before Maryann and I found out that Boyds Designer Amy French was going to be signing Boyds Bears at the Grove City Country Clutter store in Grove City, Pennsylvania. To celebrate the completion of my first Boyds cross-stitch, Maryann encouraged me to ask Boyds Designer Amy French to sign my cross-stitch prior to framing. So on October 18, 2003, my boyfriend's Mom and I got up at 6 a.m. to drive the 45 minutes to the Boyds signing. I had never been to a Boyds signing, so nervously I ask Amy to sign my Boyds Bear cross-stitch. Without hesitation, she quickly agreed to sign my cross-stitch. During the signing Amy asked me questions about my cross-stitching. Having a Boyds designer sign my cross-stitch and comment on the quality of my cross-stitching abilities really made my day. I'm sure if "The Old Bean" Himself would have been there that day he too would have approved. It has been a lifelong dream to meet a Boyds designer. Thank you for allowing them to travel throughout the United States to meet us Boyds Fanatics.

Needless to say, I love my Boyds bears! I started collecting 16 months ago and have almost 100 plush bears (only). How can you not love those little critters, naked or otherwise? I have also been to Boyds Bear Country™ and was absolutely in BEAR heaven! My husband even liked it there! I joined the F.o.B. club in 2003 and love getting everything there is to get about Boyds. I am also an avid addicted scrapbooker and with all the bear stuff, I always have something exciting to work on. I hope that Boyds never goes out of business; where else could I ever find such wonderful friends like Furley, Denise, Hoop, Kirby, Granny Annie, Rupert, Jethro, Dingle, Scruffy, Tibbs, Buford, Wally, Lankey, and all the others just waiting for a home! 🐻

Want to be featured in our Boyds Fanatics section? Send a letter to Marketing Dept., The Boyds Collection Ltd., P.O. Box 4385, Gettysburg, PA 17325. Give us all the juicy details about yourself...how long you've been collecting, what you like best, any funny stories you'd like to share with the F.o.B. family, and your phone number and e-mail address just in case we want to talk with you in person. AND DON'T FORGET TO SEND PHOTOS OF YOURSELF AND YOUR COLLECTIONS OF BOYDS STUFF!

THB's Recipe Box

The Folks at Boyds love to eat. Can't help it...eating's a good excuse not to work, so we have shindigs and special luncheons all the time! Here are some wonderful recipes sent in by loyal collectors. We hope you enjoy them, and send in your own family favorites for us to print in this column!

Blueberry-Peach Jam

- 4 cups peaches, chopped
- 4 cups fresh blueberries or 2 (10-ounce) frozen
- 2 tablespoons lemon juice
- 1/2 cup water
- 5 1/2 cups sugar
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1 stick cinnamon
- 1/2 teaspoon whole cloves
- 1/4 teaspoon allspice
- 1/2 teaspoon salt

Put fruits in kettle; add lemon juice and water. Cover, bring to a boil, and simmer for 10 minutes, stirring occasionally. Add sugar and salt; stir well. Place spices in cheesecloth; add spices to mixture. Boil rapidly, stirring occasionally, until the mixture thickens. Remove from heat; take out spices. Skim. Fill and seal jars. Process in boiling water bath.

Turtle Brownies

- 1 (14-ounce) package caramels
- 2/3 cup evaporated milk
- 1 (2-layer) German chocolate cake mix
- 3/4 cup butter, melted
- 1 cup chocolate chips

Combine caramels and 1/3 cup milk in double boiler. Stir until caramels are melted, remove from heat. Combine cake mix, butter, and remaining milk. Stir until dough holds together. Press half the dough into buttered 9 x 13-inch baking pan.

Bake in a 350-degree oven for six minutes. Sprinkle chocolate chips over crust; spread caramel mixture over chocolate. Crumble remaining dough over caramel.

Bake for 15 to 18 minutes longer.

Chicken Marengo

- 1 tablespoon olive oil
- 4 boneless chicken breast halves, skin removed
- 1 tablespoon flour
- 1/2 teaspoon dried basil leaves
- 1/4 teaspoon garlic powder
- 1/8 teaspoon pepper
- 1/2 cup dry white wine or chicken broth
- 2 tablespoons tomato paste
- 2 (14.5 or 16-ounce) cans regular or Italian whole tomatoes, well drained, cut up
- 1/2 cup green pepper, coarsely chopped
- 1 medium onion, cut into 8 thin wedges
- 1/4 cup halved or sliced onions

Heat oil over medium-high heat until hot. Add chicken breasts; cook until browned on all sides. Meanwhile, in medium bowl, combine flour, basil, garlic powder, pepper, wine, and tomato paste, blend until smooth. Stir in tomatoes. Move chicken to side of skillet, add tomato mixture. Place chicken, meaty side up, in tomato mixture. Bring to a boil. Reduce heat to medium-low, cover, and cook 10 minutes, stirring occasionally.

Turn chicken; stir in bell peppers and onions. Cover, cook an additional 8 to 10 minutes or until chicken is fork-tender.

Salmon Steaks in Orange-Honey Marinade

- 1/3 cup orange juice
- 1/3 cup soy sauce
- 3 tablespoons oil
- 3 tablespoons catsup
- 1 tablespoon honey

- 1/2 teaspoon ground ginger
- 1 clove garlic
- 4 salmon steaks (about 6 ounces each)

Combine all ingredients except salmon in shallow pan. Add salmon steaks, turning to coat. Cover and marinate in refrigerator for one hour. Remove steaks from marinade. Grill steaks, on uncovered grill, over hot coals for five minutes. Carefully turn steaks; brush with marinade and grill five minutes or longer until salmon flakes easily when tested with fork.

Golden Puffs

- 2 cups flour
- 1/4 cup sugar
- 3 teaspoons baking powder
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon nutmeg
- 1/4 cup oil
- 3/4 cup milk
- 1 egg
- Cinnamon
- Sugar

Blend dry ingredients; add oil, milk, and egg. Mix with fork. Drop by teaspoon into hot oil—375 degrees. Fry for about three minutes or until golden brown; drain. Mix a little cinnamon and sugar. Roll warm puffs in cinnamon mixture. 🐾
